

Godzina Hour	Scales of Fragmentation: Bioarchaeological Evidence of Economic and Social Transformation from the Late Roman to Early Medieval Period in the Eastern Mediterranean
9:30-9:50	 Sabina Fiolna, Adam Izdebski, Çetin Şenkul Integration and disintegration of the Roman globalised system as evidenced by historical, archaeological, numismatic and palynological record from the territory of ancient Tripolis, Western Asia Minor, part 1
9:50-10:10	 Sabina Fiolna, Adam Izdebski, Çetin Şenkul Integration and disintegration of the Roman globalised system as evidenced by historical, archaeological, numismatic and palynological record from the territory of ancient Tripolis, Western Asia Minor, part 2
10:10-10:30	 Arkadiusz Sołtysiak Preliminary assessment of the age-at-death pattern in the multiple burials at Marea, Egypt
10:30-10:50	 Hakob Simonyan, Hasmik Simonyan A unique ritual pit with human remains from the memorial complex of Armenian kings in Aghtsk (Armenia)
10:50-11:10	Dyskusja/ Discussion
11:10-11:30	Przerwa kawowa/ Coffee Break
11:30-11:50	 Tomasz Waliszewski, Urszula Wicenciak-Núñez, Mariusz Gwiazda, Monika Badura Towards an atlas of Phoenician wines - merging data from multiple sources
11:50-12:10	 Rafał Fetner Scales of Fragmentation in Romania: shift in diet between the Late Antique and Early Middle Ages
12:10-12:30	 Aldona Mueller-Bieniek Millets in archaeobotanical data from Poland
12:30-12:50	 Giedrė Motuzaitė Matuzevičiūtė, Rimvydas Laužikas The history of millet cultivation in the East Baltics
12:50-13:10	Dyskusja/ Discussion

Referat online/ Online Lecture