

Archaeology (Studies in English)

– Master’s programme

FACULTY
OF ARCHAEOLOGY
University of Warsaw

Why do we not provide credit methods and syllabi in the tables?

The detailed requirements vary between instructors and change rapidly. You will always find them in the current USOS card. Here, we outline the key factors to consider when planning your registration: title, course type, number of hours, and ECTS credits.

1st year

615 h (including 150 h of field training) • 60 ECTS

Course	type of course	hours	ECTS
Introduction to Master Thesis Workshop	class	30 h	4
Tutored Master Thesis Workshop	workshop	15 h	2
Independent Master Thesis Workshop	workshop	60 h	8
Academic seminar	seminar	30h	3
Specialization Courses	acc. to the offer	≥ 210	28
Methodology of Archaeology	lecture	30 h	2
Interdisciplinary Archaeology	lecture	30 h	2
Scientific Communication and Data Management Workshop	workshop	60 h	6
Field training (long) 1	field training	150 h	5
SUM		≥ 615 h	60

First, the short course “Introduction to Master Thesis Workshop” introduces the formal requirements and the rules of cooperation with the thesis supervisor. Then, in each semester, you meet with your supervisor within the “Tutored Master Thesis Workshop” module, while the main part of the master’s thesis is prepared independently as part of the “Independent Master Thesis Workshop.”

2nd year

≥ 495 h (30 h field training) • 60 ECTS

Course	type of course	hours	ECTS
Tutored Master Thesis Workshop	workshop	30h	4
Independent Master Thesis Workshop	workshop	120 h	16
Academic seminar	seminar	30h	3
Specialization Courses	acc. to the offer	≥ 195	26
Marketing and Management in Archaeology	class	30 h	3
Selected General University Courses OGUN	acc. to the offer	30 h	2
Selected General University Courses OGUN social sciences	acc. to the offer	≥ 30 h	5
Field training (short)	field training	30 h	1
SUM		≥ 495 h	60

In each semester, you meet with your supervisor within the “Tutored Master Thesis Workshop” module, while the main part of your master’s thesis is prepared independently as part of the “Independent Master Thesis Workshop”.

How to use the tables?

You arrange the plan in USOS – hours and ECTS show how to distribute the load evenly.

You book field training places – plan the long blocks (150 h) in advance; short exercises take place in March and October.

You can find the details – the forms of credit and the literature - in the syllabi; the course sheets in USOS.

Do you have questions? Take a look at the Studies tab or write to the Students' Office – we'll help dig up the right solution!